LOCAL.

JOHN OWENS will arrive from the south this week with a carload of general purpose horses for sale.

J. D. SKINNER, formerly of the South Edmonton Plasterer, has opened a job printing office in that town.

NEVILLE WHITE, of White & Bellevue, of the Queen's Hotel, returned on Friday from an extended visit east.

The house of W. Clark, East Edmonton, was burned to the ground on Sunday before last. The house and contents were a total loss. No insurance.

The death of Mrs. O. Morin of Jasper Avenue occurred at 2 o'clock this morning after a very short illness. Mr. and Mrs. Morin came from Battleford last fall.

Rev. J. B. DEWILDE, of Didsbury, arrived on Friday's train to make a pastoral visit to Stony Plain. He went out to the Plain on Saturday, and will return some time this week.

S. DENKLEY, an employee of the Hotel Edmonton, South Edmonton, had one leg broken on Saturday, while on his way to Edmonton. He was thrown out of the cutter in which he was riding.

At a meeting of the North Alberta Farmers Milling Co. held on Saturday it was resolved that the next meeting be held on May 10th, for the purpose of consideration of propositions now laid before them for building a mill, and site for same.

On Sunday morning as the congregation of the Presbyterian church was dispersing, Allen, the five year old son of Frank Oliver, of the Bulletin, was knocked down and run over by a horse and cutter, fortunately without sustaining any injury, beyond a slight bruise.

The Plasterer mentions that that old friend and guest, the mounted police, Rance Williams of Bittern lake, had pressing business out of town on Wednesday last. A police officer desired to inspect some fur that Rance was offering for sale and which McDougall & Secord thought they had a first lien on. Rance did not wait to dispute the claim.

Miss E. PAULINE JOHNSON, poet and eloquentist, will appear in the Presbyterian church, Edmonton, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 13th and 14th, under the auspices of the ladies' aid society. Miss Johnson's poetry has given pleasure to thousands. It is sweet and true, and natural in tone and diction. As does the work of very few Canadian verse writers. Miss Johnson has appeared as an eloquentist before distinguished audiences of the British and the United States, as well as throughout Canada.

The fur taken from McDougall & Secord's warehouse, and which Rance Williams tried to trade at Davies' store, South Edmonton, comprised two silver foxes, three otters and three lynxes. The furs were taken on Tuesday night from their warehouse, entrance being effected by breaking a pane of glass. They had only been in the fur a short time when Mr. Davies' clerk heard the furs in for inspection. The police were at once wired for and a heavy trip was made to South Edmonton. Mr. Davies had kept Williams, who had offered the furs, hanging around on one pretext or another until the police arrived. But Williams had been getting uneasy, and as the police entered one door he went out of the other and took to the woods. His home is at Bittern lake. The police are after him. But he is a desperate man. He was held some years ago on a charge of having murdered one Steve down the river. But although Steve had disappeared there was not sufficient evidence to convict Williams of this murder.

TRAIN on time.

This meeting called for Tuesday, 28th, at 8 p. m., of the subscribers to the exhibition association, has been postponed until further notice.

The department of public works, Regina, has issued a very fine map of the Territories, including the western part of Manitoba, showing the boundaries of the several local electoral districts.

M. McCULLY held a meeting on Saturday, Feb. 18th, in the White Mud school house to discuss road improvements for that settlement. There was a good attendance and very satisfactory arrangements were made.

MR. GARNER who with Mrs. Garner will be remembered as accompanying the Fresno party on their expedition to the far North in the fall of 1897, and who returned to California last year, has written to J. A. McDougall enquiring about this part of the country with a view to returning and settling here.

RANCE WILLIAMS was arrested on Saturday evening near his home at Bittern lake by the police and will be brought in on tonight's train. He will be held on a charge of having tried to sell a train of dogs belonging to Gabriel John Robillard of Calling lake, down the Athabasca. Williams was at Calling lake in the fall and borrowed Robillard's dog train to come out with. On arrival here it is said he tried to sell them.

HOCKEY.

What is said to have been the best game of hockey of the season at Edmonton was played on Saturday afternoon between the Thistles and an Indian team from the High River Industrial school. The Indian team defeated the fire brigade team of Calgary some weeks ago, before the latter came to Edmonton. They played again on Thursday last, when the fire brigade team had better fortune and defeated the Indians by 4 to 3. It will be seen therefore that the Indian team had established a reputation for hockey before coming to Edmonton. The captain was J. Mooney, farm instructor at the school. The other members of the team were pupils. They came in on Friday's train. The teams lined up as follows:

THISTLES. goal D. Callihou, Cartier, point E. Beauchamp, Ed Sibbald, cover (E. Mooney, Hardisty, point (G. Vielle, Benson,) Edgar Pretty Eyes, Campbell, for- Jack Black Bull, McLeod, wards Stephen Dakots.

Referee, C. W. Cross. Goal umpires, Wilson, Thistles; S. Larue, Indians. Time keeper, Dr. Harrison, P. L. McNamara.

SCORE.

1st half:
Thistles 1 0 1 1 1 1 0 1
Indians 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0

2nd half:
Indians 0 1 0 1 0 1 1 0 0 0 1 0
Thistles 15, Indians 7.

The game was well contested throughout and was marked by fair play on both sides. Both had come out to play hockey, not for a slugging match. Rev. Father Neumanns, principal of the Industrial school, who came up in charge of the team, expressed himself as very well pleased with the play of the Thistles. He had expected to meet gentlemanly players and had not been disappointed. He did not allow the school boys to indulge in rough play, and was very glad when they had not to meet it.

Another game between the Indian team and the Thistles has been arranged for this afternoon. The visiting team leaves for the north and home on to-morrow's train.

FROM VERMILION.

E. J. Lawrence and Jas. Atkinson arrived from Vermilion, Peace River, on Saturday. They left Vermilion on Friday, January 27th, and dragged their provisions and camping outfit on the ice of the river to Peace River Crossing and Lesser Slave lake. From there they came in with a team. They met Ladouceur, Jobin and A. Macdonald with teams and freight haul a day this side of Lesser Slave lake post. Met Chas. Anderson with three teams bound for Finlay river, at the Narrows of the lake on the 17th. Met W. H. Carson and outfit of H. B. freight on the 18th at the east end of the lake. Carson had lost one ox on the Athabasca.

Also met Sheridan Lawrence, of Vermilion, with his steam sawing and threshing outfit, and W. F. Bredin on the 18th. Lawrence intends to set up his saw mill at Lesser Slave lake and do some work this spring before going on to Vermilion. Met twelve teams of the Robb party and eight teams of other parties just entering Slave lake. The east end of the lake was bare ice, but the west end was covered with snow. Met two men with dog teams on the way to join the Glen Campbell party, on the Athabasca, 40 miles above the Landing. Met Sgt. Anderson and police mail about 30 miles above the Landing. There was about 2 1/2 feet of snow at Vermilion, 1 1/2 feet at Peace River Crossing, 1 1/2 inches at Lesser Slave lake, and almost no snow at the Landing and all the way to Edmonton. Mr. Lawrence will remain at Edmonton until spring.

PEACE RIVER TRAIL.

The Northwest government, which earned much credit for itself last year for its prompt action in exploring and opening up a trail to Peace and Nelson rivers is not slackening its hand. From letters which arrived by last mail it appears to be the intention of the government to take hold of the question of the improvement of the road to Peace river and its extension to Nelson river at the earliest possible date, and in the most business like way. Bidders are asked for the delivery of large quantities of supplies at Athabasca crossing, Lesser Slave lake, Dunvegan and St. John for use in the improvement of the wagon road to Peace river, and the pack trail from Peace river to the Nelson. Supplies to be on the ground at the several points by April 15th. The idea is to take advantage of sleighing for the delivery of the supplies, which forms such a very large part of the total cost of the work. The money for this work is part of a special appropriation of $15,000 made at last session by the Dominion parliament.

R. W. JAMESON, M. P.

A more tragic and unexpected death than that of R. W. Jameson, M. P. for Winnipeg, it would be hard to conceive. A man yet in the full vigor of life, of simple tastes and habits, in the enjoyment of health, wealth and popularity to a reasonable degree, passes into eternity without an instant's warning—veritably in the twinkling of an eye. The shock and surprise are so great as to be beyond realization. Mr. Jameson had by his merits and abilities achieved a very satisfactory measure of success in the social, business, and political world. He was essentially a popular man, without being a time server. At times it may have been thought that he was not sufficiently pronounced in the expression of his views; but his views were always on the side of the development of the west, and the success of its people. Originally a conservative, he had differed from that party on the question of railway monopoly in Manitoba. His last public utterance delivered before the Winnipeg board of trade on the day of his death, was in support of British Columbia's right to competing railways.

NATIONAL RAILWAY TO LAKE SUPERIOR.

The Farmers Institute of Portage la Prairie passed the following resolution at a recent meeting, although it was opposed by Hon. R. Watson, of the Manitoba government, and by J. G. Rutherford, M. P. for the district:

"That this meeting of the institute approve generally of the government purchase and management of the railways, and in particular that the Dominion government be petitioned to purchase and manage the Manitoba & Northwestern railway, the Ontario & Rainy river railway, and the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western railway, in the interests of the people of Manitoba."

At a recent meeting of the Winnipeg board of trade, a resolution was passed endorsing the proposition to allow the building of the Kettle river railway in the Boundary Creek country. It may be remembered that at last session of parliament when the Kettle river railway question was up for discussion, the council of the Winnipeg board of trade telegraphed to Ottawa opposing the granting of the charter. The recent action of the board was not taken with any desire to interfere in matters that did not concern them, but merely to make sure that there would be no mistake as to what the board actually thought on the subject.

THE ROYALTY.

The Yukon Sun, of Friday, Dec. 9th, contains an announcement of a change of owners and also the announcement that it is the Canadian Official Gazette. In other words that it has been selected by Commissioner Ogilvie to publish the official notices of the Yukon government. In the issue undermentioned is contained a three column and a half advertisement of an ordinance relating to the medical profession. This being the case the opinions which it expresses on the subject of the royalty cannot be considered as arising from prejudice. The following is an editorial under date of Dec. 9th, headed "Brighter Prospects":

"The late reports from the American side of the Yukon basin all point to considerable activity in mining circles. The field is large, the mining laws less stringent and more free than those of the Yukon territory, the privilege of representation less restricted, less offensive to the ideas prevailing in a mining community—so that an emigration of the surplus population will continue unchecked to the American side. Changes are needed here in the mining laws to remove the mining and business depression or else the exodus will assume alarming proportions. The constant taxation is becoming so burdensome, added to the daily hardships, which multiply in sickness and privations, that the spirit of discovery no longer animates the hardy prospector in his search for gold and new placer fields. He will naturally go to the district where the mining laws afford protection and encouragement instead of burdensome taxation and official hindrance. But better days are about to dawn upon the Yukon territory, for the constant recommendations and official reports will gradually open the eyes of the liberal administration to the fact that their adopted course is strangling the mining industries of the district. Organized capital will bring pressure to bear looking to the adoption of the fair and equitable mining laws of British Columbia and the abolishment or reduction of the royalty tax, so that it will no longer be regarded as burdensome and effective. In the event that the coming session of parliament shall adopt remedial measures, a change for the better will immediately ensue and despair's grim visage will give place to the bright face of hope. So far, the reports from the American creeks are conflicting and meager in detail, but the consensus of opinion holds to the fact that the prospecting undertaken has shown an even run of gold and that the returns from the gravel and bedrock pay better than wages. The results of the winter's development work below and above Dawson on the Yukon river has a direct bearing on the rapid or slow advancement of Dawson, and it is the urgent desire of all that the new creeks will have the elements of solidity."

DOUKHOBORS OR CANADIANS?

W. T. Ford, of Swan River, Man., writes to the Winnipeg Tribune under date of Feb. 1st:

"During the past year the eyes of those looking for new homes have been turned to the Swan River Valley and during the spring and summer of 1898 large numbers of intending settlers made their way thither, took up homesteads and applied for railway lands. Some of the choicest land in the valley lies in range 29 W. Township 36 of this range was surveyed and in the market last spring and over half the homesteads taken and a large amount of railway land applied for by British subjects, mostly Canadians. They naturally expected that the township would soon all be settled by their fellow countrymen, and were doing what they could to induce intending settlers to come there, but now they are told that no more Canadians or British will be allowed to settle there, that the balance of the land in this township is reserved for the Doukhobors. Now, Mr. Editor, I ask, is it British fair play that Canadian citizens and British subjects should be pushed aside from their birthright to make room for foreigners. . . . I maintain, and I believe the public generally will agree with me, that the very best class of settlers for Manitoba is Canadians and British subjects, and they should have the preference if all classes are not to be treated alike. It is unjust to those who have settled in 35-29 to surround them with foreigners and not allow their own countrymen to settle there. But, sir, this is not all. Those who have settled in there and improved their places, are being swayed with notices that 35-29 is set aside for the Doukhobors and their way, if they desire select homesteads some place else free of charge. Not a word is said about compensation."

It is perfectly plain from the foregoing letter that the impression desired to be created by the friends of indiscriminate immigration that the questionable immigrants are taking up land that Canadians would not take is not correct, and further that so far from an attempt being made to disperse these immigrants amongst other settlers so that they may be Canadianized, they are being herded together, and other people are absolutely prohibited from settling among them. It is of course taken for granted that the respect that any people already settled in the reserved townships were ordered off is a mistake. To give such an order would be a great mistake, as it is not necessary. They will go fast enough of their own accord, if no others are allowed to come in.

WINNIPEG COMMERCIAL, FEB. 12.

The price of oats has continued very firm and higher prices are asked. In the country car lots have been held at 25c per bushel of 34 pounds, equal to 30c on track here. Ordinary feed oats were held at about this price here. Very few oats have been marketed lately and supplies are scarce. It is expected that with the milder weather offerings will increase. Farmers were offering some on the street here, but they were mostly very poor quality and brought 25c to 28c per bushel.

PEACE RIVER MAIL.

The mounted police will send a patrol to Peace River by way of the Landing and Lesser Slave lake, leaving Fort Saskatchewan on Thursday afternoon next. All mail for Peace River points addressed in care of the officer commanding, which reaches Fort Saskatchewan by that time, will be forwarded. In other words letters which are in Edmonton post office on Wednesday evening will catch this outgoing mail if properly addressed.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

An inquest was held by Dr. Braithwaite, coroner, at Fort Saskatchewan on Thursday, on the body of Leon de Michel, who died at Athabasca Landing while being brought in from Lesser Slave lake by a police patrol. From the evidence offered it appeared that the deceased was one of a party of prospectors bound for the Yukon. Apparently he had not got much further than Peace River Crossing, and in the early winter was noticed by the police there as being of unsound mind. He was taken charge of for a time, but having apparently recovered was allowed to go. He stated that he was anxious to get to Edmonton. He arrived at Lesser Slave lake all right. Some time afterwards he was found in the Swan hills, this side of Lesser Slave lake, by Mr. Dykeman, who lives at Swan river, near the lake. When found he had been badly frozen. Dykeman took him to his house and afterwards to the Roman Catholic mission at Lesser Slave lake. Dr. Tulloch, who is living at Slave lake, was called in and did what he could for him. Shortly afterwards Michel became violent and the mission authorities had to hand him over to the police for safe keeping. The police decided that they had better bring him to Edmonton. Const. Field brought him to the Landing in four and a half days from Slave lake, reaching there on the afternoon of Friday, the 17th. Every effort had been made to provide for his comfort, but he was very obstreperous. He died shortly after reaching the Landing. The body was brought on to Fort Saskatchewan, and the inquest held as stated. The jury found that death had resulted from exposure undergone while in a state of insanity. The body was buried in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Fort Saskatchewan, pending final instructions from the wife of deceased, who resides at Peoria, Ill. The deceased was not short of money as he had some cash when he died.

INTERIOR B.C.

C. D. Alger, formerly of Edmonton, and more recently of Ponoka, writes to the BULLETIN from Notch Hill, B. C. EDITOR BULLETIN.

I thought I would drop you a few lines to let my old acquaintances know through your paper that I am passing the winter in British Columbia, and that so far the change of climate has been very good, as far as my health is concerned. The weather here has been much warmer than in the Battle river country. The lowest temperature so far was 12 below zero, which was on Feb. 6th. Fruits of all kinds grow to perfection here, and the lakes are full of very good fish. There has been so much written about the mineral deposits in this province that a passing word is all I will say, as my personal experience as a prospector is limited. However, I located some claims on the north side of Shuswap lake, in connection with two other parties. We bonded them for a consideration worth our time and expense upon them.

As a home for the many, to give you my real opinion as far as I can see, Alberta is good enough for me for many reasons, a few of which I give below. In the first place it appears to me that the taxes are too high, considering the advantages of the country in the way of roads and in other respects. A man who has a homestead here has in the first place to pay at least $1.00 per acre. But he does not get the timber on his homestead; so he has to pay 12 1/2 per cord for his wood off his own farm, and 25 per cord if he wants to sell a few cords of fence rails, building timber or poles. In fact none of the timber on his homestead is in any way more his than his neighbor's, who can buy it from the government as easily as he can. Then he has to pay $3.00 poll tax. Then $5.00 up for homestead; $5.00 for license to prospect; and $10.00 for the privilege of trading in the province. All the above taxes are annual taxes, and a great many of the farmers in this district have only a potato or a garden patch; as it costs as much to take out one stump here as it will cost to break 160 acres near Ponoka. So I have come to the conclusion that by all means Alberta has the advantage of British Columbia for a man of limited means to make a start with. This place is about twelve years old, and there is no possible way to get in or out but by the railroad, to the west. From all I can see and hear the laboring man is just used for the advantage of the government and the monopolist.

A very sad accident took place last Friday morning when No. 1, Pacific, was coming up the grade. Half a mile east of the station she struck a young man who was on the track going to the lumber camp three miles east of here. It appears that he was thrown across the rail and pushed up to the switch, where his knee got caught between the rails. The wheels of the cars passed over the leg cutting it off. A few men who got off the express saw him, and supposed he was drunk. They made an effort to get a light and investigate the affair, but without success it being two o'clock a.m., and being strangers the poor fellow was left to bleed to death. He was found next morning by the section hands quite dead. His name was James Dailey, supposed to be from Sing Sing, New York, and was about 31 years old. His height was about 6 feet 2 inches, and weight about 180 lbs; fair complexion. Coroner Clarke, of Kam-loops, held an inquest on Saturday and the verdict of the jury went to show that he had been the worse of liquor; that his death was from injuries received by being run over by the engine. The body was buried yesterday at Notch Hill.

The weather is now quite warm.

THE TREATY COMMISSION.

The treaty commission at Washington adjourned on Feb. 20th to meet again on August 2nd at Quebec. It is possible, however, that this meeting will never take place, and that the work of the commission is closed without anything more definite than an amicable understanding being arrived at. The point upon which they finally divided was the Alaskan boundary, the Canadians claiming that the head of Lynn canal is in Canadian Territory. This the United States commissioners would not concede, nor would they leave it to arbitration. A statement made public by Senator Fairbanks and Sir Wilfrid Laurier concludes: "It was therefore deemed advisable to adjourn to a convenient date in order to enable the treaty commission to further consider the subjects with respect to which no conclusions were yet reached."

OLDS.

Well, Mr. Editor, it is some time since ye agile quill man of this district has forwarded news for your popular journal, so we "take pen in hand to let you know that Olds is well and hope you are enjoying the same blessing." When last we wrote, the political situation was most interesting. George Bennett was constantly at a heel and toe polka, and his manoeuvres were decidedly interesting—as one of the political speakers at the renowned Dog Pond meeting said: "That's all right, George, hain't grinding peanuts and candy for nothin'."

Now that Calgary is to be the capital, old political enemies have closed up the broad chasm 'twixt them and ones more shake hands. Provincial "autonomy" is no more a bone of contention, and we are all back to buckin' wool. Some pink-haired animal in this diggings signing himself "Mike" is rendering a few of the most delicious hunks of news ever written to the Calgary Herald from the old or new world. Even the Wetsakwini "jiblets" has been moved by the rheumatic wails of this "speckled face" type of gent, and is offering a life's subscription to the lucky (1) man who can identify "ze wretch."

Hainstock & Dean are moving into their well appointed quarters in the Walker block and will, when settled down, have a nobby shop. The latter fills up the yawning expanse between Mr. Halsenback's and Mr. Grasse's; so now we have three cracking good general stores all in a row. "You pay your money and take your choice."

And the end is not yet. There is to be one Moore store in town we learn, and a fellow by that name has leased the Jamieson building, begun repairs and will "open fire" in early March. Mr. Cloakey received two car loads of cows and heifers from the north on Saturday to be sold off at once, and many are the buyers; as this point is destined to be one of the chief dairying centres of Alberta.

A petition for the holding of an agricultural exhibition is being quite freely signed and doubtless we will have a full show next fall.

School opens this morning, after a vacation during which the school house underwent repairs.

The Olds railway station has been given a thorough overhauling and the office, waiting room and living apartments of both agent and fireman, are in a good habitable condition.
